Our City's Advantages.

Did you ever stop to think that our city is a city that enjoys many natural and acquired resources—a city that needs but the skillful manipulation of man to make them yield bountifully of their rich treasure—a city supplied with the very best and purest of water—a city whose educational advantages have reached a standard through the skillful direction of competent officials, second to that of no other place of its size anywhere—a city where harmony among the communicants of the different churches is in perfect accord with the object sought by our forefathers of the "Mayflower" and all doctrines are ably expounded with untrammelled freedom from the pulpits of our different churches—a city whose social advantages are equal to those afforded by places many times its size and age—a city where the rich enjoy every luxury desired, and the poor are not allowed to suffer—a city where peace and good will toward all men is exemplified.

A Happy New Year to all our readers.

Good-Bye, Old Year.

We are about to step from the Old Year to the New, and we are reminded that after all our fears and apprehensions, to many of us, it has been a very kind year. To some, we know that the dark side has been turned, but after all, there is a gleam of sunshine for all if we but look for it. We would not forget that to look upon the homes of some of our readers since last New Year's day, a shadow has fallen and a mantle of sorrow has wrapped its inmates in its sombre folds.

Other homes are like the empty nest that hang on the withered bough, desolate because the life and song went out with the birds.

New homes have been made and old ones have been severed, but in our onward march, it is not well to stop and weigh the load each one carries. No life is all sunshine or all storm. If New Year brings prosperity, let us rejoice; if adversity let us be brave. The sunset gate of life will swing shut upon some of us ere the close of another year. Let us see to the record left on this side. If our dear ones and friends leave us for the summer land, let not the memory of harsh words spoken by us, add to the pangs of separation.

Good-bye, old year. After all, we are loath to let go of many precious memories as well as many sad things to remember. But time bids us part and however severely thou hast chastened us, yet we find our hardened feelings relenting and a spirit of charity pervades our being. We forgive as we hope to be forgiven. In humility and love we bow our adieu and welcome the New Year with naught but good resolves, and high aspirations that each coming day will see our lives better, purer and nobler in every act and purpose.

Patton-Williams.

Miss Mary Williams and Mr. Ennis Patton, both of the Virden neighborhood, were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Marion Williams, Tuesday, December 19th, Elder Albert Easter officiating. The happy pair are leading people of their neighborhood. The Times extends hearty congratulations.

Boog Brush and three of the Muncy brothers engaged in an altercation on the highway bridge in this city Saturday evening in which no one was seriously injured. Warrants have been issued for the boys and they will be given a hearing in Judge Fletcher's court.

A cold wave struck us Saturday night, and the coldest weather of the winter has since been experienced. Early Monday morning the thermometer dropped to zero, but soon rose higher and the day was an ideal bright winter day.

The city school has adjourned the holidays, but will reopen Monday in January.

Another Life Sentence for Jett.

Curtis Jett, the famous Breathitt county assassin, was Friday found guilty of the murder of town marshal James Cockrell, at Jackson, and a jury at Cynthia fixed his punishment at life imprisonment. Jett confessed the murder, but claimed that Cockrell would have killed him at some future time, if he had not killed him. Jett was delighted with the verdict notwithstanding this is the second life sentence imposed upon him for murder. He says he will make a model prisoner and hopes in some future day to appear as a free man.

THE TIMES.

ALL HOME-MADE PAPER.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 27, 1906.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

B. McGlone has moved into the house vacated some weeks ago by Mrs. Rice.

A light snow fell Friday night which made us hopeful that we might have a white Christmas.

Miss Mary Shinifessel, who is attending school at Cynthiana, returned home Friday to spend Christmas with home folks.

Most all of the country schools in the county have closed their terms, and the children are now prepared to take their long vacation.

George W. Anderson, Jr., our bustling exclusive cash groceryman, will start the new year all right with a big advertisement in the CLAY CITY TIMES.

Nothing would make a nicer Christmas or New Year present friend than a year's subscription to the TIMES. It would be a little reminder fifty-two times the year of your kind and helpful generosity.

"Owe no man anything," is both scriptural and just. Don't forget the printer, he likes to have alikes to have a little of the filthy lucre occasionally, especially about the new year, a good time for everybody to be square.

We are in receipt of a beautiful poem written by Florence King, of Athol, Ky. entitled "Home in Kentucky."

Owing to our crowded space we are unable to publish it this week, but it will appear in our issue of January 10th.

The Methodist Church of Mt. Sterling has filed claims against the government for damages. It is claimed that the church was occupied by troops during the Civil War at intervals for nearly two years and that the building was damaged and the congregation disorganized.

Most fortunate is the boy or girl, the young man or the young lady who is given the opportunity to attend school in our little city. Its educational advantages surpass any town of like size in the state. If you have not been attending this school, be sure and start with the January term.

Unlike most all other local papers the TIMES is out Christmas the same as any other week. We so far have been fortunate in being able to not miss an issue in the past five years that we have been located here, and we hope to be able to serve our readers in the same efficient manner in the future.

John W. McKinney, one of Powell County's leading stock men, took a drove of cattle to Mt. Sterling Court Monday, sold them and bought others. On his way home with the cattle, passing the C. & O. crossing, six of his cattle were struck by a passenger train. The cattle were killed. The cattle were worth thirty five dollars.

Some alleged offenders of the local option in Clay City were tried in Police Judge Fletcher's court and acquitted.

A Miraculous Cure.

The following statement by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, Pa., will interest parents and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." It's the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. Guaranteed. 50c and $1.00 at Swann-Day Lumber Co's. store.

Dress Making.

Misses Kate Hutchinson and Alta Maupin are prepared to do all kinds of dress making. Located in the Red River Hotel.

Not the Only Trust.

"The tobacco trust is not the only trust. There are others just as greedy, just as unmindful of the rights of others. There is scarcely a commodity sold in the nation the price of which is not controlled by a trust. The situation is, indeed, becoming desperate, and if something is not done to curb the rapacity of the trusts desperate measures will be resorted to. Their tendency is toward anarchy, and the Princeton affair is only a warning of what may be expected unless the people are given relief. Such acts are to be deprecated, and the law should always be respected, but when people become desperate they become lawless. These outbreaks against the tobacco trust are but muttering of the storm of protest against trust domination that is certainly coming. It is with fire and hellish cruelty unless the trusts are curbed and the people relieved." Bowling Green Times.

A Western Wonder.

There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of Consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure Cough and Cold cure. Guaranteed by Swann-Day Lumber Co., 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

New Watchmaker.

J. P. Maupin, Watch and Clock repairing of all kinds on reasonable terms. Now located in the Adams Hotel building for work in his line. Prompt attention to all work and satisfaction guaranteed.

THE TIMES and Courier-Journal both one year for $1.00.

New Cure for Epilepsy.

The Mountaineer came out with a fine Christmas cover and otherwise improved this week.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn. fought nasal catarrh. He writes:

and soreness inside fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at Swann-Day Lumber Co's store.

There is an aesthetic side to the good roads movement that is of no little importance. What is drearier, what more depressing than to drive along a country road deep with mud and furrowed by ruts, the water standing in pools in the road and where ditches ought to be?

The date of the Christmas entertainment at the Methodist church was changed from Thursday night to Tuesday night.

J. R. Neal, well-known to many of our readers, is right sick at his home in Estill county near Winston.

We are a little early this week occasioned by Christmas coming so near the middle of the week.

Farm for Sale.

Lying on Red River at the mouth of Car Creek and near Rosslyn station on L. & E. Ry. About 225 acres in entire boundary, 130 acres of bottom land under good fence, subdivided into 8 or 10 lots or fields, all in high state of cultivation and all in grass, well rested and ready to make money on. There is $800 to $1,000 worth of virtually uncultivated timber on the boundary. Plenty of fruit, good barn, nearly new, capable of housing 50 to 60 head of stock, two good never failing wells of water. Plenty of stock water, Red River running on one side and Car Creek through the middle. Meat house, hen house, cribs, &c. For the Children.

Christmas is eminently the children's day. From the gray of early dawn—it is the only day in winter when their eyes open at that hour—at the latest hour at night, let everything give way to the little autocrats whose tyranny is courted by every man and woman who has any of the essence of love in the breast. Romp and tumble and shout with them. When another Christmas comes, some of them will not be here, and those that are will by one year be that much further from the royalty that do so fittingly become them. Christmas is for the children—let everything bend to their enjoyment.

Mrs. Martha McNeil, of Scott county, had a corn on her foot which she trimmed too closely. Blood poison set in and the foot was amputated but without avail as she died last week. She was sixty-eight years old and leaves a large family.
